Only Available from NA Trading and Technology!

NA Trading and Technology is proud to introduce the first OEM equivalent drum for use in both D0099510 and A2309510 applications and was even shown to provide increased life improvements over the OEM A2309510 drum.

Facts:

- Our end cap provides a unique and innovative solution that enables service providers to reduce inventory demands by stocking just one drum for both applications.
- NATT's universal D0099510 drum passed our in-house and field testing while producing life improvements in both the A2309510 and D0099510 applications.
- The drum, exclusive to NA Trading and Technology, provides tremendous value in cost per copy applications by reducing both parts and service expenses.
